

2025 Nutcracker Business Sponsor Form

The beloved, all-local production of The Nutcracker Ballet returns to the Paramount Theatre on December 19th & 20th, 2025. Featuring over 90 talented local performers, this year's performance promises to be more magical than ever. This year's production features dancers from all over the Rutland region and is being co-directed by Miss Lorraine's School of Dance & Miss Jackie's Studio of Dance, bringing together two of the region's long-standing & most respected dance communities for a truly collaborative and inspiring performance. We invite your business to be a part of this cherished holiday tradition by becoming a sponsor. Your support helps bring the magic to life and ensures this community celebration continues to thrive. Thank you for considering this opportunity to support the arts in our region.
